EAR PLUG WAIVER AND RELEASE

Acknowledgement and Acceptance of Risk:

I understand that choosing not to wear ear plugs or other protective hearing devices when participating in Tomato's House Of Rock, LLC's programs as a performer or a stage hand. Such programs involve practicing, playing and hearing rock music at loud levels and can cause hearing damage or loss of hearing. I am aware that participation in these programs may entail known and unknown risks of injury to my hearing and my health. I expressly agree to accept and assume all responsibility and risk for potential injury or damage to my hearing or my health that arises from my participation in these programs. I freely elect to participate in Tomato's House Of Rock, LLC's programs despite such known and unknown risks. If I choose not to wear earplugs or other protective hearing devices when participating in such programs, my decision is purely voluntary. I am advised by Tomato's House Of Rock Music, LLC that I should wear protective hearing devices when participating in its programs because they may reduce the potential for hearing damage or loss of hearing from such activities.

Release:

PERMISSION TO USE STUDENT IMAGE, VOICE AND MUSIC RECORDINGS

Because of the nature of public performances, rehearsals and the nature of our schools there are many parents, friends, students, media photographers, fans and others who take pictures, images, videos, film and audio recordings of performances, rehearsals, and lessons that may include your child. Because of the modern nature of digital media distribution, it is impossible for Tomato's House Of Rock, LLC, or any manager or employee to control the distribution of these images and recordings.

On some occasions, your child's image, video, or audio recordings may be submitted to be used on our web site, in printed and promotional materials for the school and its students, in photographs and videos, or in voice or sound/music recordings in connection with any of the foregoing or otherwise. By signing the attached form you recognize the nature of the use of these images and media and grant permission for their use. This permission will remain in effect beyond the time when you or your child is a student of Tomato's House Of Rock, LLC, unless you cancel your permission by writing to the school. In that case we should be able to stop any further productions but will not be able to retract already released productions.

Your permission to use the student's image, voice and sound/music recordings is sometimes helpful to promote the school and the many talents of its studentd and is appreciated. Please be assured that we consider these children our children and will protect their images in many reasonable ways and will respond to any concerns you have in a timely manner on an individual basis.

(PLEASE SIGN SECTION 2 OF THE STUDENT ENROLLMENT FORM: Tomato's House Of Rock, LLC Policies and Waivers.)

ALCOHOL AND DRUG POLICY; WAIVER AND RELEASE

Tomato's House Of Rock, LLC maintains a policy against the illegal use of alcohol and drugs. Thus, the illegal use of alcohol or drugs by the students is prohibited, whether on or off the premises or facilities of Tomato's House Of Rock, LLC. Failure to abide by this policy may result in the expulsion or suspension of the student. Students expelled as a result of violating this policy will not receive a refund or return of any money, deposits or fees. If the student is traveling with the school and is found illegally using drugs or alcohol in violation of the policy, the student may be sent home, at the sole discretion of the school, with all costs of return transportation imposed on the student and his or her parent, which costs they agree to bear by signing the attached form.

Tomato's House of Rock, LLC has no duty to the parents or students to monitor compliance with the above policy. Instead, it is the duty of the student to comply with this policy and the duty of the parent to encourage and monitor compliance. We hold the parents responsible for counseling their children on illegal alcohol and drug use in the following ways: parents should have serious discussions with their children regarding our policy on illegal alcohol and drug use and the possible consequences of violating the policy; they should discuss how other cities, states, and countries in which the students may travel with the school may have different laws and also may have different punishments than the region in which they live in the U.S.; and they should explain that students are expected to comply with all rules and act as adults with respect to the school's policy, since the school has no duty to act as their parents and cannot, and will not, monitor them. By signing the attached form, you are acknowledging that you have had such conversation(s) with your child.
